CLASS PROPHECY

"Honey you'll never guess who I bumped into on the airway, an old friend of mine from the Class of 1964.

We discussed how much time has progressed in the last two decades and how our fellow classmates had been destined to life."

John Baker has soared to fame and height by opening his own beauty saloon in Gay Paree and designing his famous hairdo, the BeBop Bubble.

Linda Becraft has married at the age of 37 to her boss. She broke the World's record for typing and dictation setting the mark at 275 words per min. for typing and 300 per min. in dictation, all of this while she sits on his lap.

Connie Bitner succeeded far into the world as a home economist after receiving the Crisco award. She is well known for her Books 'How to Catch a Husband' and 'How to Keep Him After You Get Him.' Connie recently married her eighth husband.

Alan Chrisman has been given the title as Mr. Universe of 1984. He had such a way with the ladies, they just couldn't resist choosing him.

Norman Goode has stepped into the world of acting. He now shares Richard Barton's record of holding his leading lady the longest.

Ronnie Higgins finally got his big chance to prove his words of being a fighter. He has met three feather weight contenders and has only been beaten three times. Although the bell has rung Ron is still swinging.

Alvin Holmes has become the President and owner of a big construction company. With his 15 children and more on the way his biggest project at this time is the construction of his 30 room mansion.

Morris Kennedy searched his soul after graduation and decided to become a missionary in deepest Africa. He is known to all of the natives as the MOOSE MAN.

Franklin Jones rose to fame because of his curly red hair. With his hot trumpet he has organized his own dance band and now sells millions of records each year. His latest record is "You Make My Freckles Beat".

Paul Lanville became bored with the daily process of earth life shortly after graduating and decided to move to the moon. Here he opened the first drag strip and set up new records in speed.

Warren Kemple has started to design his own cars. His latest one is the J K 9000. It has succeeded in breaking the sound barrier. His motto: 'If you can't go in a Kemple car - don't go.'

Alvin McFatridge has recently made his second billion after discovering an oil well in his own back yard. He put Arlington on the map.

Patty Wann is traveling with the Ringling Brothers Circus as a barker. She has been called the Socrates of the twentieth century.

David VanOslo settled down after graduating on his twenty thousands acre farm and a riding stable in Kentucky. He has several horses. His wife loves horses and so does his children.

Frank Pitts decided to start studying after several broken hearts with the women. He has now dedicated his life to science, he is preparing to put a man and woman on Mars.

Dickie Wake decided to go athletic after graduating from Butler. He chose football as his particular field. He has tied Johnny Unitas' records of throwing the most touchdowns in one season.

Donna Nelson studied the great operas and decided to take up singing. She is previously known as the Lillie Pons of the 1980's.

John Wells after studying speech his senior year decided to become a Senator. He is the Senator from Alaska and has decided to run for President next term. Good Luck old man.

Steve Wilson has gone far with his baritone voice. He has become the second Elvis Presley of the Universe and has recorded many golden records.

Aleta Wooten fell in love with school the last semester of her Senior year and set her goal as becoming a History professor. She is the head of History Department at Yale.

Janet Ronan loved the hospital so well she decided to work in one herself. She is now a great psychologist at Richmond where she is among her own kind.
